

TALKING TALES: WORK, LIFE & YOU

So this is your opportunity to find out more about what makes your loved one tick. From their career (if they had one), to the things that made them laugh.

As before, keep saving your notes as you go, don't feel you need to stick to all the suggested questions (some won't apply) and have fun with it.

And, don't worry, we'll get to love and family in the next Talking Tales chapter.

What was your first job?

Tell me about your career over the years (this includes being a homemaker or full time parent)

Did you ever get fired / walk out of a job / get in trouble with the authorities!?

Do you think you were good at your job?

If you got the chance to do it all again, what career or path would you choose?

Looking back on your life, what has been your proudest achievements (not including your family)?

Who's been your best friend throughout your life?

Tell me your favourite place that you've ever lived? Or visited?

Tell me about a happy memory that you'll cherish forever...

Do you have a memory that still makes you laugh today?

What makes you happy?

What has been one of the biggest struggles you've had to overcome in life? Did it teach you anything?

What would you say to your 20 year old self?

What's still on your bucket list?

What do you wish you'd done more of? And less of?

Extra notes...

A large, empty rectangular box with a light blue gradient background, intended for users to take notes. It occupies the central portion of the page.

Now make sure you save your notes!

Bet you've discovered lots of new things about your loved one. If you're inspired and want to start turning your notes into a proper story, then head to our site where we have lots of expert advice. <https://www.speechy.co.uk/talking-tales>

Otherwise, just get tucked in to the next chapter of our Talking Tales Series. Enjoy!
